The Company or a Subsidiary may not exercise voting rights for a Share pledged to it or for which it holds a right of usufruct. Shares on which, in accordance with applicable law no vote may be cast, shall not be taken into account in determining the extent to which the shareholders vote are present or represented, or the extent to which the share capital is provided or represented. 9.8. The acquisition of Shares by a Subsidiary shall be subject to the provisions of section 2:98d of the Dutch Civil Code. 9.9. The foregoing provisions of this article 9 shall not apply to Shares which the Company acquires by universal succession of title.
10. REDUCTION OF CAPITAL 10.1. Upon the proposal of the Board, the General Meeting may resolve to reduce the Company's issued capital in accordance with the relevant statutory requirements. Such resolution must designate the Shares to which the resolution pertains and must describe the implementation of the resolution. A partial repayment or waiver of the obligation to pay up the Shares must be effected on a pro-rata basis in respect of all Shares of the same class involved. 10.2. A reduction of the Company's issued capital may be effected: (a) by cancellation of Shares held by the Company or for which the Company holds the Depositary receipts; or (b) by reducing the nominal value of Shares, to be effected by an amendment of the Articles of Association. 10.3. The Board shall adopt resolutions by an absolute majority of the total number of votes cast, unless article 16.4 second sentence applies. Blank votes shall be considered null and void. 16.3. At meetings of the Board, each member of the Board shall be entitled to cast one vote. In the event of a tie of votes, the Chairman shall have the casting vote. 16.4. In addition to the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association, the Board may adopt internal rules regulating its decision making process and working methods, including rules in the event of conflicts of interest. The internal rules can furthermore provide that one or more members of the Board are duly authorised to resolve on matters which belong to their respective range of duties. 16.5. The Board may adopt an internal allocation of duties for each member of the Board individually, provided that (i) the day to day management of the Company shall be entrusted to the Executive Directors and (ii) the duty to supervise the performance of the Executive Directors cannot be taken away from the Non-Executive Directors. The internal allocation of duties can be implemented in the rules as referred to in article 16.4. 16.6. Without prejudice to its own responsibility, the Board is authorised to appoint persons with authority to represent the Company and, by granting of a power of attorney, conferring such titles and powers as shall be determined by the Board. 16.7. The Board may establish such committees as it may deem necessary, which committees may consist of one or more members of the Board. The Board appoints the members of each committee, provided that (i) an Executive Director shall not be a member of the audit committee, the remuneration committee or the

Notwithstanding the provisions in article 18, if all members of the Board have a conflict of interest as referred to in article 17.2, such resolution shall be adopted by the Board.
18. VACANCY OR PREVENTED TO ACT 18.1. If a seat on the Board is vacant or one or more members of the Board are absent or prevented from acting as referred to in section 2:134 paragraph 4 of the Dutch Civil Code, the remaining members of the Board or the sole remaining member of the Board shall be entrusted with the management of the Company. 18.2. If a member of the Board is prevented from acting pursuant to article 17.2, and only if not all members of the Board have a conflict of interest, such member of the Board is authorised to temporarily designate an entrusted independent individual to replace him in the decision-making for the matter at hand. 18.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of article 17.3, if all the members of the Board are absent or prevented from acting, the management of the Company shall be temporarily entrusted to one or more persons designated for that purpose by the General Meeting.

20. INDEMNIFICATION MEMBERS OF THE BOARD 20.1. The members and former members of the Board shall be reimbursed by the Company for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) reasonable cost of conducting a defence against claims, including claims by the Company, based on acts or failures to act in the exercise of their duties or any other duties currently or previously performed by them at the Company's request; and (b) any damages payable by them as a result of an act or failure to act in the exercise of their duties or any other duties currently or previously performed by them at the Company's request. 20.2. There shall be no entitlement to indemnity as referred to in this article 20: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) if and to the extent the laws of the Netherlands would not permit such indemnification; (b) if and to the extent a competent court has established in a final and conclusive decision that the act or failure to act of the current or former member of the Board may be characterized as wilful (opzettelijk), intentionally reckless (bewust roekeloos) or seriously culpable (ernstig verwijtbaar), unless the laws of the Netherlands provide otherwise or this would, in view of the circumstances of the case, be unacceptable according to standards of reasonableness and fairness; or (c) if and to the extent the costs, damages or fines payable by the current or former member of the Board are covered by any liability insurance and the insurer has paid out the costs, damages or fines. 20.3. Except if the claim is instituted by the Company itself, the relevant current or former member of the Board shall follow the Company's instructions relating to the manner of his or her defence and consult with the

The person concerned shall not: (i) acknowledge any personal liability, (ii) waive any defence, or (iii) agree on a settlement, without the Company's prior written consent. 20.4. The Company may take out liability insurance for the benefit of current or former members of the Board. 20.5. The Board may, by agreement or otherwise, give further implementation to the indemnity.
21. FINANCIAL YEAR, ANNUAL ACCOUNTS, ANNUAL REPORT 21.1. The Company's financial year shall be concurrent with the calendar year. 21.2. The Board shall prepare the annual accounts within the period set under or pursuant to the law. The Board shall also, within the period mentioned above, prepare an annual report. 21.3. The annual accounts shall consist of a balance sheet, a profit and loss account and explanatory notes. 21.4. The annual accounts shall be signed by all members of the Board or, if the signature of one or more of them is lacking, this fact and the reason therefore shall be indicated. 21.5. The General Meeting shall instruct a registered accountant or a firm of registered accountants, as defined in section 2:393 paragraph 1 of the Dutch Civil Code, to audit the annual accounts and the annual report by the Board, to report thereon, and to issue an auditor's certificate with respect thereto. If the General Meeting fails to issue such instructions, the Board shall be authorised to do so. The Company shall ensure that the annual accounts and, insofar as required, the annual report and the information to be added by virtue of the laws of the Netherlands are kept at its office as from the day on which notice of the annual General Meeting is given in which the annual accounts and the annual report shall be discussed and in which the adoption of the annual accounts shall be resolved upon. PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

EXPLANATION

MEETINGS, EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS, CONVOCATION 23.1. Annually, a General Meeting shall be held within six months of the end of the financial year. 23.2. General meetings will be held in Amsterdam, Rotterdam, The Hague or Haarlemmermeer (Schiphol). 23.3. General Meetings shall be convened by the Board in accordance with applicable law. 23.4. Other General Meetings shall be held as often as the Board deems this necessary or upon the written request of those entitled to attend meetings, representing at least one-tenth of the issued capital, to the Board setting out in detail the matters to be considered. 23.5. An item proposed by one or more shareholders having the right thereto according to the next sentence, will be included in the convocation or announced in the same manner, provided the Company receives such substantiated request or a proposal for a resolution no later than the sixtieth day prior to the day of the meeting. Consideration may be requested by one or more holders of Shares representing jointly at least the percentage of the issued capital or the amount as prescribed in section 2:114a of the Dutch Civil Code. The requirement of a written request is met if the request is electronically recorded.
24. GENERAL MEETINGS; CHAIRMAN 24.1. The General Meetings will be presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence by the vice-chairman of the Board, if both are absent; the General Meeting shall appoint the chairman. Until that moment, a member of the Board appointed for that purpose by the Board shall act as chairman of the meeting. 24.2. The chairman of the meeting shall appoint a secretary for the meeting. 24.3. The chairman shall decide on all disputes with regard to voting, admitting people and, in general the procedure at the meeting, insofar as this is not provided for by law or the Articles of Association.

25. MINUTES; RECORDING OF SHAREHOLDERS' RESOLUTIONS 25.1. The secretary of a General Meeting shall keep minutes of the proceedings at the meeting. The minutes shall be adopted by the chairman and the secretary of the meeting and shall be signed by them as evidence thereof. 25.2. The chairman of the meeting or those who convened the meeting may determine that a notarial record must be prepared of the proceedings at the meeting. The notarial record shall be co-signed by the chairman of the meeting.
26. GENERAL MEETINGS; ENTITLEMENT TO ATTEND GENERAL MEETINGS 26.1. Persons with meeting rights are entitled, in person or through an attorney authorised in writing for the specific meeting, to attend the General Meeting, to address the meeting and, in so far they have such right, to vote. 26.2. For the application of article 26.1, Persons with meeting rights are considered those persons who (i) on a date determined by the Board in accordance with applicable law (the "record date") have those rights, and (ii) are as such registered in (a) register(s) determined by the Board, irrespective of who is holder of the Shares at the time of the General Meeting. 26.3. The convocation notice for the meeting shall state the record date and the manner in which the persons entitled to attend the General Meeting may register and exercise their rights. 26.4. In order for a Person with meeting rights to be admitted to a General Meeting, that person must give prior written or electronic notice to the Company of his intention to attend that General Meeting in advance of such General Meeting, within a period determined by the Board. Also, at the request of or on behalf of the chairman of the General Meeting, each person who wishes to exercise the right to vote and to attend the General Meeting must sign the attendance list. 26.5. The members of the Board shall have the right to attend

the General Meeting. In these meetings they shall have an advisory vote. 26.6. The chairman of the meeting shall decide on the admittance of other persons to the meeting. 26.7. If so determined by the Board and announced at the time of convening the meeting, each holder of Shares has the right to attend the General Meeting by electronic means either in person or represented by a person holding a written proxy, to address that meeting and to exercise his voting right, provided that the use of the electronic means by this shareholder enables the identification of the shareholder and enables the shareholder to directly take note of the discussions at that General Meeting and participate in the deliberations of that General Meeting. The previous sentence shall also apply to others who are entitled to attend General Meeting pursuant to article 26.2. 26.8. For the application of article 26.7 the requirement to have a written proxy is met in case the proxy is laid down via electronic means. 26.9. If so determined by the Board and announced at the time that the General Meeting is convened, votes can be cast prior to the General Meeting by electronic means, but such votes cannot be cast prior to the record date. 26.10. The Board is authorised to adopt regulations regarding the use of electronic means. If the Board used its authority to adopt such regulations these shall be made available at the time the General Meeting is convened.
27. GENERAL MEETINGS; VOTING RIGHTS 27.1. Each Share shall confer the right to cast one vote. Insofar as the law or the Articles of Association do not provide otherwise, all resolutions of the General Meeting shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast, without a quorum being required. 27.2. The chairman of the meeting determines the method of voting, which includes oral, written or electronic voting. The chairman may determine that the voting will be done by acclamation in which case notes will be made of abstentions and negative votes if requested.

CURRENT ARTICLES	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS	EXPLANATION
In the event of the election of persons, anyone entitled to vote may demand that voting shall take place by written ballot. Voting by written ballot shall take place by means of sealed, unsigned ballot papers. Votes cast by electronic means or letter preceding the General Meeting will be similarly disposed with votes cast during the General Meeting if the Board prescribes so and this is announced with the convocation. 27.3. If there is a tie in voting the issue shall be decided by drawing lots, if it involves a proposal in an election of persons. If it concerns matters, the proposal shall be rejected in the event the votes tie. Blank votes shall be considered null and void.
28. MEETINGS OF HOLDERS OF SHARES OF A CERTAIN CLASS 28.1. Meetings of holders of shares of a certain class will be convened as often as this might be necessary in the opinion of the Board. 28.2. Convocation will be effected by means of a registered letter, directed to the address of each shareholder of such class according to the shareholders' register. The provision of articles 23, 24, 25, 26.1, 26.7, 26.8 and 27 apply accordingly, this with the exceptions that (i) the convocation shall be effected no later than the eighth day preceding the meeting and (ii) the articles 23.4 and 23.5 shall not apply. 28.3. Holders of shares of a certain class may also adopt resolutions without convening a meeting, provided that such shareholders entitled to vote approve the resolution in writing (including all forms of transmission of written material, either by electronic means or otherwise) unanimously.	28.
